St. Cloud Hotel.

THIS new and commodious house located corner of Broadway and 42d Street, possesses advantages over all other houses for the accommodation of its guests. It was built expressly for a first class Family Boarding House—the rooms being large and en suit, heated by steam—with hot and cold water, and furnished second to none; while the culinary department is in the most experienced hands, affording guests an unequaled table.

One of Atwood's Patent Elevators is also among the 'modern improvements" and at the service of guests at all hours.

The Broadway and University Place Cars pass the door every four minutes, running from the City Hall to Central Park, while the Sixth and Seventh Avenue Lines are but a short block on either side, affording ample facilities for communicating with all the Depots, Steamboat Landings, places of Amusement and Business of the great metropolis.

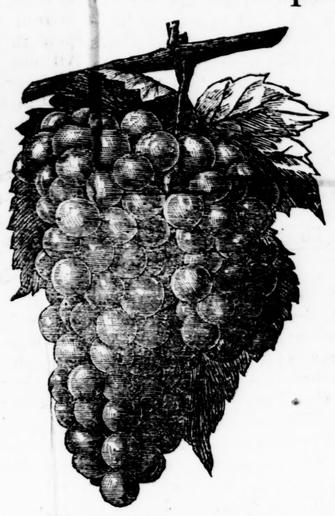
The "Walter" Grape.



DESCRIPTION.—The "Walter" is a cross between the Delaware and Diana, particularly combining the good qualities of both, and better than either.

The earliest good variety known; ripens with the Hartford Prolific.

A great grower and bearer; foliage and wood as hardy as the wild or native grape.

Its fruit never rots, but after a time uniformly raisins, in the house or on the vine.

This fact shows that it contains more sugar than any other variety, consequently will make better wine.

It has borne seven years, and never failed in producing its usual crop, while the wet seasons here have destroyed most of the other varieties.

The following are some of the Premiums which the "Walter" has received:

1863. American Institute--First notice and Premium as a new seedling.

1864. Newburgh May Horticultural Exhibition--First Premium.

1864. State Fair, Rochester--Noticed as a Seedling of promise, and likely to make a superior wine.

In 1865, at 5 years old, was removed from Modena, Ulster County, to Poughkeepsie, and bore 8 fine clusters fully ripe 20th August.

1866. American Institute--Highest Premium as a Seedling not yet disseminated.

1866. State Fair at Saratoga Springs--Noticed as a Seedling of high character and much promise.

1866. First Premium, quality ruling, at the great Exhibition of the Lake Shore Grape Grower's Association at Cleveland.

1868. Boston--Gratuity $5.00, and was thought the most promising grape on exhibition.

1868. New York State Grape Growers' Association, Canandaigua, N. Y.--First Premium for the best 1 o a d e d branch.

1868. Lake Shore Grape Growers' Association, Painesville, Ohio--First Premium of the new varieties. Also first Premium for the best 1 o a d e d branch.

SACCHARINE TESTS FOR WINE.--At the National Saccharine Test for wine, at Hammondsport, N. Y., Oct. 28th, 1868, the Catawba stood in saccharine matter 91--Walter 99--Iona 106--Delaware 103. This test was made with 17 ounces of the Walter, somewhat frozen, to 24 ounces of each of the other varieties.

Next morning the Superintendent, Clerk, and one of the Directors of the Pleasant Valley Wine Co. the parties who conducted the test the day before, to satisfy themselves of the merits of the "Walter" by an equal trial, tested 17 ounces of clusters of Iona from the same lot that were used the day before, and the saccharometer stood at 91--the "Walter" beating it 8.

Had 17 ounces of the Delaware and Catawba been pressed equally hard with the "Walter," their skins and centres being acid, the Delaware would have stood lower and the Catawba proportionately below the Delaware. All the other varieties ranged much lower than those enumerated above.

There had been constant rains and damp weather in the section where the "Walter" grew--its competitors growing at Hammondsport and along the lakes, where there had been but little rain during the season--dry soil and weather being necessary for the perfect sweetening of grapes.

SPECIAL NOTICE.--We offer our No. 3 Walter Vines for one dollar each, in quantities not less than 100. 430 will plant an acre if set 10 feet apart each way. BOILED INDIAN PUDDING.

Take one pint of sour milk, half a teacupfull of molasses, two tablespoonsfull of butter or lard, one teaspoonfull of soda, one half cup of chopped raisins, or any kind of fruit; stir in cornmeal as thick as can be stirred. Boil two hours in tin pudding dish, with a lid to shut tight, leaving room to rise. Serve with sugar and cream, flavored with lemon or vanilla, or sweet sauce of syrup.

HOW TO COOK RICE.—"No one can boil rice like a palkee bearer; every grain comes out of the chattie as dry as wheat, and nothing more simple; [illegible] vessel with cold water, and set, covered, by the fire; when well boiled, but not overmuch, the water is poured off, and the rice still left in the vessel by the fire; give it a shake now and then till wanted, and it will run out dry as meal."

FELON ON THE FINGER.—Many persons are liable to extreme suffering from felons on the finger. These afflictions are not only very painful, but not unfrequently occasion permanent crippling of the member affected.—The following simple concoction is recommended as a sure cure for the distressing ailment: Take common rock salt, such as is used for salting down pork and beef, dry it in an oven, then pound it fine and mix it with spirits of turpentine in equal parts.—Put it on a rag and wrap it around the thumb, and as it gets dry put on some more, and in twentysfour hours we are assured the felon will be dead.

A MIRACLE OF HONESTY.

At a party one evening several gentlemen contested the honor of have done the most extraordinary thing.—A reverend gentleman was appointed judge of their respective pretentions.

One produced his tailor bill and a receipt attached to it. A buzz went through the room that this could not be outdone.

A second proved that he had just arrested his tailor for money that was [illegible]

"The palm is his," was the generous cry, when the third put in his claim.

"Gentlemen," said he, "I cannot boast of the feats of my predecessors, but I have returned to the towowners umbrellas left at my house."

"I'll hear no more!" said the astonished arbitrator. "There is the very acme of honesty; it is an act of virtue of which I never knew any one capable of; the prize"—

"Hold!" said another, "I have done still more than that!"

"Impossible!" cried the whole company. "Let us hear."

"I have been taking my village paper for twenty years, and have paid for it every year in advance."

He took the prize.

☞ An old lady, on being examined before a magistrate as to her place of legal settlement, was asked what reason she had for supposing her husband had a legal settlement in that town. The old lady said:—"He was born and married there, and they buried him there, and if that isn't settling him there I don't know what is."

A learned lady, the other evening, astonished the company by asking for the "loan of a diminutive argentine truncative cone, convex on its summit and semiperforated with symmetrical indentations. She wanted a thimble.

That was not a bad hit by a wag coming to town in an omnibus, who, seeing his friend bow to an extremely corpulent man, asked who he was. "That, sir, is Smith, the great corporation-contractor." "Ah! indeed! he looks more like a corporation expander!"

"Hallo! I say, what did you say your medicine would cure?" "Oh, it'll cure everything—heal anything!" "Ah, well, I'll take a bottle; maybe it'll heel my boots—they need it bad enough!"

A little boy, disputing with his sister recently, exclaimed, "It's true, for ma says so; and if ma says so it is so if it ain't so."

Little Howard R—— came into the room where his mother has just hung up a clean curtain, and made the astute observation, "Oh, ma, the window has got on a clean shirt."

THE FIRST WIFE'S PICTURE.

BY EVA EVERETT.

In searching for a mislaid book,
Some volume of enchanting lore—
He seeks an unfrequented room
And strides across the echoing floor.
As hastily he glances 'round,
His eyes he doth unwitting raise—
And there before him on the wall,
His first wife's picture meets his gaze.
The dust lies thick, while cobwebs hang
In festoons from the tarnished frame—
But "Oh!" his startled heart exclaims,
"The picture! it is just the same,
The same which mem'ry true doth keep
Deep in my soul, in colors bright,
In recess hid and closely veiled
A'ar from life and human sight."

How brightly waves the rich, brown hair,
Above the placid, creamy brow—
And on the softly moulded cheek,
How warm the youthful, rosy glow.
The red mouth wears a mournful smile,
The lips to speak, now parting seem—
But oh! those dusky, haunting eyes—
How brightly life-like is their gleam!
'Neath ebon lash and drooping lid,
The tear-drop seems about to swell,
As on his eyes with mild reproach,
Hers lovingly and lingering dwell.
He stands entranced, his heart aflame
With love, regret, remembrance, pain,
As with this first bride of his heart,
He lives his lost youth o'er again.

Swift, tripping feet now cross the hall,
But pause when at the half-closed door—
His name half-uttered dies away
Fro n pale lips, rosy just before.
The young wife stands unheeded there
He[illegible]
That beauteous first wife, dark and grand—
The husband's wrapt, unconscious mien.
With dimpled fingers tightly clasped,
She stands a white-robed statue there—
The rose-tint faded from her cheek—
The sunlight on her golden hair
With "unshed tears" her bright eye gleams,
Her bosom heaves with sudden swell—
But hark! a distant laugh rings out
And breaks the spell.
He starts as from a dreamy sleep,
With heavy sigh, and strides away—
She turns, and swift with noiseless feet
Seeks deepest solitude—to pray.

Everton, 1869.

"DOCTOR, mother sent me down to the shoticary pop quicker'n blazes, cos bub's sick with the picken chox and she wants a thimbleful of polygolic in this din tiper, cos we hadn't bot a gottle, and the kint pup's got the bine witters in it—Got any?'

John, what do you do for a living?

Oh! me preach.

Preach, and do you get paid for it?

Sometimes me get a shilling sometimes two shillings.

But isn't that mighty poor pay?

Oh! yes, but its mighty poor preaching.

A gentleman travelling on a steamer one day at dinner was making away with a large pudding close by; when he was told by a servant that was desert.

'It matters not to me,' said he, 'I would eat it if it were a wilderness.

"You and your wife should become one," said a friendly adviser to a henpecked husband.

"Become one!" exclaimed henpecked; "why we are ten now."

"How so?"

"She's 1, and I'm 0."

"I came near selling my boots the other day," said Scuttle to a friend. "How so?" "Well, I had them half soled."

WHATEVER may have become of John Doe, Richard Roe at least is still alive and kicking. He proves to be a bank robber, and made his escape in a queer way from the Ohio penitentiary at Columbus, last week. The son of the foreman of the workshop headed the thief up in a barrel and rolled him out, and confederates who were in waiting outside, hurried him away as fast as possible.

UNIVERSITY AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS No 1.

(CONCLUDED.)

The act establishing the Cornell University was passed in the Senate of New York, on the 22nd day of March, 1865, in the Assembly on the 21st day of April following, and was approved by the Governor on the 27th day of the same month. It provides that the Institution shall annually receive one student for each Assembly District of the State, free of tuition fees, or any incidental charges, except such as may be made to compensate for damages heedlessly or purposely done by the students to the property of the University. These students are selected in consideration of their superior ability, and as a reward for superior scholarship in the Academies and Public Schools of the State. The following rules are observed in their selection:

The School Commissioner or Commissioners of each county, and the Board of Education of each city or those performing the duties of such a Board, select annually the best scholar from each Academy and each Public School of their respective counties or cities, as candidates for the University scholarship. The candidates thus selected meet at such time and place as the Board of Supervisors appoint, and are examined by a Board, consisting of the school Commissioners of the county, or the Board of Education of the cities with such other persons as the supervisors appoint, who determine the best scholars. From these the Board of Supervisors select the number of one for each Assembly District in such county or city, and furnish the candidate thus selected with a certificate of such selection, which entitles him to admission to the University free of charge, subject to the examination and approval of the Faculty.

The cost of tuition at this Institution is $10 for each Trimester, or $30 per annum.

The University of Kentucky embraces several Colleges, each under the immediate government of its own Faculty and Presiding Officer. The general supervision of the University, as a whole, is committed to the Regent, who is elected from among the Curators. The Colleges of the University are severally styled:

1. The College of Science, Literature and the arts.
2. The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky.
3. The College of the Bible.
4. The Normal College.
5. The College of Law.
6. The College of Medicine.

Each of these is divided into several Schools or Departments of Study, and each of these Departments under the immediate control of a Professor assisted when necessary by subordinate Instructors and Tutors.

In the College of the Bible, tuition is entirely free to all. In each of the other Colleges, which are organized, except that of Law, the annual cost of tuition is $30.

The act of the Legislature establishing the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky as one of the Colleges of the University, provides that each Representative District in the State, may send to that College, free of charge for tuition, three properly prepared students for each member the District is entitled to send to the General Assembly. Such students also have the right to receive, free of charge for tuition, the benefit of the instruction given in any College of the University, except those of Law and Medicine and the Commercial School. The young men who enjoy these privileges are selected by a majority of the Justices of the Peace in the several Districts, from whom they receive certificates. The authorities earnestly recommend to the Justices to select a Board of Teachers in each District for the examination of applicants, and to institute a system of competitive examinations, thus giving all, even the humblest youth a chance for this State honor.

To the University of Virginia, one student is admitted from each Senatorial District of the State, free of matriculation and tuition fees and rents. This privilege, however, is meant to be restricted to those who are not themselves, and whose parents are not able to incur the expense of their education at the institution, without aid. These States students are appointed by the Faculty upon satisfactory testimonials of fitness. By way of remuneration to the State for the aid thus afforded them, they are required, on admission to sign an engagement to teach for two years after leaving the University, in some of the private or public schools of the State. Ministers of the gospel are allowed to attend any of the schools of the University, without payment of fees to the Professors, and the same privilege is extended conditionally to young men preparing for the ministry.

At the University of our own State, the cost of tuition is $40 per annum, and the Trustees have offered all the benefits of the institution, free of charge, to as many residents in the State as there are members of the most numerous branch of the General Assembly. North Carolina has not been surpassed in liberality in this respect by her more opulent sisters.

The University of North Carolina has been placed at the head of the public schools of the State. Time will be required to perfect our educational system, the general features of which are set forth in the constitution. These schools cannot be opened without teachers. They should only be taught by first class instructors. These must be educated in our own State, or they must be sought and obtained from abroad. It was proper first to open the University, with a department of normal instruction, and this has been done. Streams take their rise and flow down from their fountain head to irrigate and enliven the plains. Light radiates from its central luminary.

I am not inclined to conceal my real name, nor have I feared to disclose my real views upon this most important subject. All our people should be educated, whether they design to pursue the learned professions or to engage in the honorable labor of the "corn field and cotton patch."—"We must have meat to eat, bread," but these should not be denied the blessings of intellectual and moral culture.

A calm and dispassionate interchange of views among the friends of education, will go far towards awakening an interest in the popular mind, and doubtless result in the common good. If these brief communications, which have been written with all courtesy, have done no more than to attract the attention and elicit an expression of opinion from a few upon this great subject of our educational interests, one purpose of the author has been accomplished.

During the decade beginning with the year 1808, the University of North Carolina recorded 514 matriculates and 110 graduates. Beginning with the year 1818, there were 1,308 matriculates and 259 graduates; with the year 1828, there were 1,005 matriculates and 146 graduates; with the year 1838, there were 1,537 matriculates and 308 graduates; with the year 1848, there were 2,923 matriculates and 448 graduates; with the year 1858, there were 1,872 matriculates and 410 graduates, making a grand total of nearly 20,000 matriculates.

During the period of twenty years beginning with June 1849, nearly one thousand of these were my College mates, and above three thousand have been my pupils. Many of these who were dear to me in life's spring time and whose increasing usefulness I watched with anxious and affectionate interest, now rest quietly in their graves. Their names are on the record which lies before me, and their memory is yet pleasant as the fragrance of flowers fresh fallen. Many still survive, and from them scattered all over the land, come frequent letters of cordial greeting. One of these who fought bravely in the Southern army during the late war, writes from a Northern State, "No one entering upon a field of duty so conscientiously as yourself, need have any fear of ultimate success; and I am sure the University is far better off than when it was first put into operation after the revolutionary war, and, I should judge, the State authorities intend it shall prosper.—With my best wishes for your success, &c." Another from the far South, "I hope, my dear sir, you have not forgotten me, as I entertain a most distinct and pleasant memory both of yourself and your classroom. Many of my classmates were killed near me in the army of Virginia, and I, myself, am writing to you with my left hand, having had my right arm amputated at the shoulder joint at the battle of Gettysburg. T—, and J—, are near me and doing well. J— lost his left arm in the war. My brother, W—, is entirely well (though wounded in the war) and would join me in kindest wishes for you." And a classmate writes. "The University must be made a great power for good. Of its final success in your hands, I have no doubt; not however without opposition. The press will growl, prejudices will be excited, ridicule attempted. But I trust that in the genuine spirit of the great Apostle, you may truly say, none of these things move me." Another classmate, and intimate associate in the morning of our youth, now filling a position of usefulness and honor in Delaware. And recently from a College mate a minister of the gospel, residing in a sister State, quoting in his letter to me a prayer he had just been offering in his closet for the success and prosperity of the University. And from central and eastern and western North Carolina, come these messages full of hope and encouragement. I linger yet at the old home stead, to watch and care for our common mother.—And the day will yet be, when her thousands of scattered sons will send happy greetings, or return with glad hearts to rekindle the fires of their youthful aspirations, their love of virtue and liberty and science at the shrine of their alma mater.

A NORTH CAROLINIAN.

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 21.

☞ President Grant proclaims the 13th of November as a day of general thandsgiving.

The papers tell us it takes two hours to marry ritualistically. What an age for a business man to wait!

A special despatch from Liverpool says that two million of specie is known to have been shipped to New York within the past three days.

Thanksgiving Proclamation by the President.

The following annual thanksgiving proclamation has been issued by the President:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8, 1869.

By the President of the United States:

The year which is drawing to the close has been free from pestilence. Health has prevailed throughout the land. Abundant crops reward the labors of the husbandman. Commerce and manufactures have successfully prosecuted their peaceful paths. The mines and forests have yielded liberally. The nation has increased in wealth and in strength. Peace has prevailed, and its blessings have advanced every interest of the people in every part of the Union. Harmony and fraternal intercourse, restored, are obliterating the marks of the past conflict and estrangement. Burdens have been lightened, means increased. Civil and religious liberty are secured to every inhabitant of the land, whose soil is trod by none but freeman. It becomes a people thus favored to make acknowledges [illegible] whom such blessings flow, of their gratitude and their dependence; to render praise and thanksgiving for the same, and devoutly to implore the continuance of God's mercies.

Therefore I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend that Thursday, the 18th day of November next, be observed as a day of thanksgiving and of praise and of prayer to Almighty God, the Creator and the Ruler of the Universe.

And, second, I do further recommend to all the people of the United States to assemble on that day in their accustomed places of public worship and to unite in the homage and praise due to the bountiful Father of all mercy, and in fervent prayer for the continuance of the merciful blessings He has vouchsafed to us as a people.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed this the fifth day of October, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-fourth. U. S. GRANT.

By the President:
HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

At a meeting of the Ex. Committee of the Agricultural Society, held Friday, Oct. 8th, it was resolved to offer the following premiums, for the best printing, book, job, or newspaper, on each variety, five dollars; for the best book binding, five dollars; for the best paper, letter, book, news and wrapping, on each variety, five dollars.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Let Us Protect Ourselves.

The physicial structure of the strongest human being is vulnerable everywhere. Our bodies are endowed by nature with a certain negative power, which protects them, to some extent, from unwholesome influences; but this protection is imperfect, and cannot be safely relied on in unhealthy regions or under circumstances of more than ordinary danger. Therefore, it is wisdom; it is prudence; it is common sense to provide against such contingencies, by taking an ANTIDOTE IN ADVANCE; in other words, by fortifying the system with HOSTETTEER'S STOMACH BITTERS—the most complete protective against all the epidemic and endemic maladies that has ever been administered in any country.—As a remedy for Dyspepsia, there is no medicine that will compare with it. Whoever suffers the pangs of indigestion, anywhere on the face of the earth where HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS can be procured, does so voluntarily; for, as surely as truth exists, this invaluable TONIC and ALTERATIVE would restore his disordered stomach to a healthy condition. To the nervous it is also especially recommended, and in cases of confirmed constipation it also affords speedy and permanent.

In all cases of fever and ague the BITTERS is more potent than any amount of quinine, while the most dangerous cases of bilious fever yield to its wonderful properties. Those who have tried the medicine will never use another, for any of the ailments which the HOSTETTER BITTERS professes to subdue. To those who have not made the experiment we cordially recommend an early application to the BITTERS whenever they are stricken by disease of the digestive organs.

CHOLERA.

HOW TO CURE IT.

At the commencement of the diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (warm, if convenient,) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes till the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Asthma, it cures in one night, by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to bad Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a Pain Killer.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Family Medicines.

HO! FOR THE FAIR.—We hear that the most ample arrangements have been made to make the Fair, which commences in Raleigh on Tuesday next, attractive to all class of visitors. And President Smith, of the North Carolina Road, has so accommodated his Schedule for the occasion, that persons in Goldsboro', and along the line of the road, can attend each day, and return home at night, thus saving Hotel expense.—This will insure a large attendance from this section of country. The train will leave Goldsboro', daily, at half past five, in the morning, and returning, leave Raleigh at fifteen minutes past six in the evening. See Schedule in another column.

MEETING OF THE STATE COUNCIL OF N. C., F. or T.

The State Council of the State of North Carolina, Friends of Temperance, convened in this place, at 8 o'clock, on Wednesday evening last, and after transacting all business requiring its attention, adjourned on Friday evening.

This session was a most pleasant and harmonious one, and one that, we trust, will greatly tend to promote the interests of the grand and noble cause of Temperance.

On Thursday evening the members of the State and Subordinate Councils met at the Council Room of Goldsboro' Council, formed a procession and proceeded to the Baptist Church, where, after the Opening Ode had been sung and a solemn and impressive prayer offered by Rev. Jno. N. Andrews, to the throne of Him to whom we are indebted for our past success and to whom we must look for our future prosperity, the large audience assembled were favored with excellent addresses from Revs. A. R. Raven, Jno. R. Brooks and R. H. Whitaker. The addresses by these gentlemen were received with marked effect, and we sincerely hope that the words spoken by them will redound to the good of the Temperance cause generally, and to Goldsboro' Council particularly.

The following were the Councils represented, together with the names of the Representatives:

Pettigrew, No. 1.—D. S. Hill.
Mt. Olivet, " 9.—J. N. Andrews.
Branch, " 10.—J. W. Wellons.
Oak City, " 16.—R. H. Whitaker.
Elm City, " 34.—J. L. Heritage.
Goldsboro', " 43.—J. J. Robinson, J. H. Smith, Wm. Robinson and G. W. Sanderlin.
Smithfield, No. 44.—J. R. Brooks.
Fidelis, " 47.—Wiley Hastings, Levi Raiford and J. W. Dowd.
Mt. Auburn, No. 58.—J. T. Russell.
Associate, " 61.—A. R. Raven.
Bentonsville, " 62.—I. M. Eason.
Graham, " 65.—J. A. Long.
Roscoe Richards, No. 68.—E. L. Brown.

The next session of the State Council will be held at Graham, on the second Wednesday in October, 1870.

The following Officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Rev. Jno. N. Andrews,
Associate—Rev. L. C. Vass,
Chaplain—Rev. N. F. Reid,
Secretary—Rev. R. H. Whitaker,
Treasurer—Rev. P. D. Thompson,
Conductor—Jas. H. Smith,
Sentinel—J. A. Long.
Delegate at Large to the Supreme Council—Wm. Robinson.

FIRE AT NAHUNTA—TWO NEGROES BURNED TO DEATH.—On Tuesday night, about twelve o'clock, the stables of Mr. W. W. Barnes, in Nahunta, in this County, were destroyed by fire. Two negroes were sleeping in the stables at the time. One perished in the flames, and the other escaped, badly burned, only to suffer a few hours when death came to his relief. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

THE DERBY OYSTER SALOON.—This popular saloon is in full operation, and receiving an immense patronage. At the Derby is kept the choicest and finest oysters; fresh supplies received daily, and served in every style to individuals, or for private or public suppers. And ye husbands who forget to go home early, and desire to propitiate the mad-am, just take our advice and drop in at the famous Derby Oyster Saloon. The host has the most inimitable manner of fixing up the delicious bivalves, with appetizing pickles, which you can take home with you, and be sure of receiving, when you enter the heaven of her presence, a smile, if not a kiss, of welcome.

A. S. BARNES & CO.—In calling attention to the advertisement of these popular publishers, which will be found under head of New Advertisements, we take the occasion to state that we examined their series carefully and were struck with their extraordinary merit. As an evidence of the populaaity of the National Series, every State that permits official adoption has adopted them for use in the Public Schools. And these adoptions have been made by Boards and Superintendents of every political complexion, with great diversity of views. We commend the "National Series of Standard School Books," which have been so universally adopted, to teachers and parents.

NEW FISH STAND.—We are pleased to announce that our friend Smithson Moore is making arrangements to go extensively into the fish business. This will be gratifying news to our citizens, who have recently had to pay such exhorbitant prices for fish. Bunches, which have been selling for years in our market for 25 cents, have suddenly gone up to 50 cents, which, as it by agreement, is the price charged at each stall. The market is as abundantly supplied as it ever was, and we can see no reason why 50 cents should be charged for three little mullets. Smithson is an honest man, "totes fair," and will be satisfied with a living profit, and will be patronized by our whole people.

ELECTION IN PITT.—William A. Cherry, Esq., Republican, has been elected to the State Senate, from Pitt, vice David J. Rich, deceased, by a majority of 124. This majority is much greater than that of the last election, and is attributed to the five hours speech of Joe Turner delivered at Greenville.

ELECTION IN MECKLENBURG.—H. C. Jones, Esq., Democrat, has been elected to the Senate from this County, vice Judge Osborne, deceased, by a majority of 182 votes. The democratic majority at the last election was about 400.

PETERS' MUSICAL MONTHLY, for October, contains thirty pages of music, besides much interesting letter press. A year's subscription to this Journal will place the amateur in possession of a handsome volume of popular music for the low price of $3. Single numbers 30 cents. Address J. L. Peters, 198 Broadway, N. Y.

The maxim, "Strike while the iron is hot," is getting altogether too slow for the age; you must make it hot by striking.

HEARTH AND HOME.—This weekly publication, by Pettingill, Bates & Co., of 37 Park Row, New York, continues to improve with every issue. It is now one of the very best family papers printed in the country. The publishers give notice to all who subscribe before next January, for One Year, at the Reduced Rates printed below, HEARTH AND HOME will be sent from the date of their subscription to the end of this year FREE, so that all such yearly subscriptions will end Jan'y 1st, 1871.

THEREFORE, those who subscribe earliest will GET THE MOST FOR NOTHING.

Our ONLY TERMS hereafter are the below REDUCED RATES FOR 1870, Invariably in Advance.

Single Copies	$4
Three " all at one time	9

All over FIVE Copies at same rate.

Making HEARTH AND HOME, to a Club of Five Subscribers at $2.40 each, THE CHEAPEST, as it is the most complete, FAMILY WEEKLY NEWSPAPER in the world.

It will be seen that the price to clubs to Five and over, are extremely low, while the subscriber gets the paper till the 1st of January free, by remitting subscription money at once.

VISITORS AND ARTICLES FOR FAIRS.—Col. Fremont, Superintendent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, gives notice that all articles for the Annual Fairs of the "State," "Central" and "Cape Fear Agricultural Associations" will be passed over the road free, both ways. Visitors will pass on return tickets for one fare. Special rates for the Cape Fear Agricultural Fair will be hereafter announced.

MR. ANDREW J. BURTON, late associate Editor of the Weldon NEWS, has withdrawn from that paper.

Come All.

The citizens of Goldsboro' and surrounding country are requested to meet at the Court House, on Thursday next, Oct. 14th, for the purpose of taking into consideration the proposed Railroad connection to Snow Hil and Greenville.

☞ A full attendance is desired.

MANY CITIZENS.

THE RURAL CAROLINIAN.—We inadvertently failed to notice last the appearance of this new agricultural monthly, published in Charleston, by Walker, Evans & Coswell, at the very low price of $2 per year. This number is filled with articles of the deepest interest on the various subjects connected with the cultivation of the earth and the development of its resources. We earnestly commend the Rural Carolinian to the patronage of our friends, and advise them to subscribe for it at once. The very low price at which it is published puts it within the reach of the most moderate means, and the initiatory number, which is now on our table, is worth the price of a whole year's subscription.

"Advertising."—An exchange gets off the following—no less good than true:

Somebody says that some people don't believe in advertising, because, they say "nobody reads the papers." But let them get into a scrape and you will find them going round to the newspaper offices with the request: "Please don't mention that little affair, it's a mistake; I don't want my name published all over the country." That is so, as we happen to know.—"Please don't report my case in the paper," is a very common request.

A NEW way is given to prevent horses pulling at the halter. Put a small rope under the horse's tail, bringing the ends forward, crossing them on the back, and tying them on the breast. Put the halter strap through the ring and tie to the rope in front of the breast. When the horse pulls, he will, of course find himself in rather an uncomfortable position, and discontinue the effort to free himself.

KOSKOO, the great Liver Invigorator, Blood Purifier, and Renovator, prepared by Dr. J. J. Lawrence, the celebrated Physician and Chemist, is a SAFE, PLEASANT, and RELIABLE remedy, for the PREVENTION and CURE of all diseases caused by a TORPID LIVER, IMPURE BLOOD, DISORDERS of the KIDNEYS, or DEBILITY of the NERVOUS SYSTEM.

It REGULATES the secretions, ERADICATES all HUMORS or TAINTS, restores lost or wasted nervous power, and at the same time builds up and imparts tone and vigor to the whole system.

Goldsboro' Tough News.

WEDNESDAY OCT. 13, 1869

JOSH BILLINGSIANIA.

I never bet on a man who is always telling what he would have done if he had been there; I have noticed that this kind never get there.

The fear of the law here and the law hereafter has furnished some very clever specimens of Christianity.

Fools don't know their strength, if they did they would keep still.

True happiness seems to consist in wanting all we can enjoy, then getting all we want.

Beauty never dies; it is like truth; they both have an immortality somewhere.

If you would make yourself agreeable whenever you go, listen to the grievances of others, but never relate your own.

Men never seem to get tired of talking of themselves; but I have heard them when I thought they showed signs of weakness.

Common sense is most generally despised by those who haven't got it.

Although mankind worships wealth I will give them credit for one thing—they seldom mistake it for brains.

Monuments are poor investments—the poor don't deserve, and the good don't need them.

The best way to keep a secret is to forget it.

It isn't so much trouble to get rich as it is to tell when you have got rich.

If a man wants to get his actual dimension, let him visit the graveyard.

I don't care how much a man talks if he would only say it in a few words.

Any body can tell where lightning struck last, but it takes a smart man to tell where it is going to strike next time; this is one of the differences between learning and wisdom.

I have got a first rate recollection but no memory. I have a very distinct recollection of losing a ten dollar bill, but can't remember where, to save my life.

There are some people whose thoughts can't be controlled; they are like twins, they can't be had, and can't be stopped.

A HARD NUT ON THE WITNESS STAND.

Prosecuting Attorney—"Mister Parks, state if you please whether you have ever known the defendant to follow any profession."

"He's been a professor ever since I've known him."

"Professor of what?"

"Of religion."

"You don't understand me, Mr. Parks. What does he do?"

"Generally what he pleases."

"Tell the jury, Mr. Parks, what the gentleman follows."

"Gentlemen of the jury, the defendant follows the crowd when they go in to drink."

"Mr. Parks, this kind of prevarication will not do here. Now state how this defendant supports himself."

"I saw him last night support himself against a lamp post."

"May it please your honor, this witness has shown a disposition to trifle with the court."

Judge—"Mr. Parks, state if you know anything about it, what the defendant's occupation is."

"Occupation, did you say?"

Counsel—"Yes, what is his occupation?"

"If I ain't mistaken, he occupies a garret, somewhere in town."

"That's all, Mr. Parks."

Cross examined—"Mr. Parks, I understood you to say that the defendant is a professor of religion. Does his practice correspond with his profession?"

"I never heard of any correspondence or letters passing between them."

"You said something about the propensity of drinking. Does he drink hard?"

"No, I think he drinks as easy as any man I ever saw."

"One more question, Mr. Parks. You have known the defendant a long time; what are his habits—loose or otherwise?"

"The one he's got on now, I think, is rather tight under the arms, and too short waisted for the fashion."

"You can take your seat, Mr. Parks."

"I am now," said a Turkish spy, writing to his government, "in an apartment so small that the least suspicion cannot enter it."

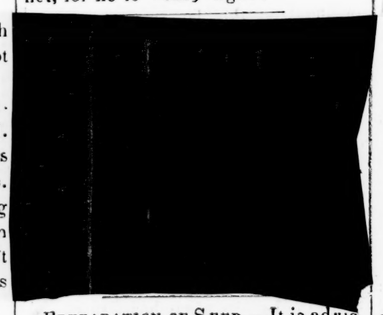
An itinerant merchant, meeting one of his own fraternity the other day, whose pony might be considered a beautiful specimen of an equine skeleton, remonstrated with the owner, and asked him if he ever fed him.—"Ever fed him! that's a good 'un," was the reply. "He's got a bushel and a half at home now, only he ain't got any time to eat 'em!"

A SHOEMAKER with one eye complained that one of his lamps did not burn. One of his shopmates, who is a genuine son of the Emerald Isle, with astonishment exclaimed: "Faith and what do you want of two lamps? You haven't but one eye."

ONLY TIGHT.—"How flushed, how weak he is! What's the matter with him?" "Only tight." "Yes, intoxicated."

Only tight! Man's best and greatest gift, his intellect, degraded; the only power that raises him from the brute creation trodden under foot of a debasing appetite.

He has brought sorrow to the affectionate hearts of all who love him; he has opened the door to a fatal indulgence; he has brought himself down to a level with the brutes; he has tasted, exciting the appetite to crave the poisonous draught again; he has fallen from high and noble manhood to babbling idiocy and heavy stupor; brought grief to his mother, distrust to his sister, almost despair to his bride, and has bowed his father's head with sorrow; but blame him not, for he is "only tight!"



PREPARATION OF SEED.—It is advisable always to guard against smut by some preparation of the seed that will cleanse it thoroughly. The simplest that is also effectual, is to wash in brine, pouring the grain slowly in, skimming off carefully everything that floats; after draining well, sprinkle with fresh slacked lime or dry plaster.

Let it be borne in mind, as to this important crop, that thorough preparation and ample manuring will, on suitable soil, almost insure success in any season, and that without these, scarcely any crop is so uncertain.—American Farmer.

RESPONSIBILITY.

A young man in Virginia had become badly intemperate. He was a man of great capacity, fascination, and power, but he had a passion for brandy which nothing could control. Often in his walks a friend remonstrated with him in vain; as often in turn would he urge his friend to take the social glass. On one occasion the latter agreed to yield to him, and as they walked up to the bar together, the barkeeper said:

"Gentlemen, what will you have?"

"Wine, sir."

The glasses were filled, and the friends stood ready to pledge each other in renewed and eternal friendship, when he paused and said to his intemperate friend:

"Now if I drink this glass and become a drunkard, will you take the reponsibility?"

The drunkard looked at him with severity, and said:

"Set down that glass."

It was set down and the two walked away without saying a word.

Oh! the drunkard knows the awful consequences of the first glass. Even in his own madness for liquor, he is not willing to assume the responsibility of another's becoming a drunkard.

What if the question were put to every dealer, as he asks for his license and pays money: "Are you willing to assume the responsibility?" How many would say, if the love and gain of money did not rule. "Take back your license?"

A Considerable Difference.—"Is Mrs. Brown in?" inquires a gentleman of the servant who responds to his ring at the door bell.

"No, sir, she's not at home."

"Well, I'm sorry," said the gentleman, in a regretful tone, "as I owe her some money and called to pay it."

Whereupon a voice from over the balustrades is heard:

"O! I am in; to be sure I am!—Why, Sallie, didn't you know that? Ask the gentleman to walk in."

CONGLETON'S

VEGETABLE SALVE

The Great Cure for Piles.

TETTER, BURNS FRESH CUT WOUNDS, OLD SORES CHAPPED HANDS, LIPS AND FACE THROAT, BOILS, BRUISES, SHINGLES CORNS, &c

THE great cures that this Salve has, and is now making, particularly the astonishing cures of Piles which it has effected, places it, beyond question, as the greatest remedy for this disease that has ever been known.

Sufferers from this dreadful and troublesome complaint, and their numbers are counted by thousands, and daily increasing, can confidently rely upon this Salve as the great medicine that will certainly cure them, having never known it to fail in a single instance

Below we give for the benefit of those suffering from Piles, a few Testimonials from those who have suffered, and been completely cured by the use of Congleton's Vegetable Salve:

TESTIMONIALS;

WILLIAMSTON, MARTIN CO., February 22nd, 1869.

MR. JNO. R. CONGLETON, RALEIGH, N. C.

Dear Sir:—For the last eight or ten years I have been exceedingly troubled with the painful and distressing case of the Piles. Hearing "Congleton's Vegetable Salve" spoken so highly of as the great cure for Piles, I purchased in March, 1868, while in Washington, N. C, one box, and was soon relieved, and by the time I had used the contents of the box I was perfectly well, and have never had an return since. I consider myself entirely and permanently cured. I give this for the benefit of those who may be troubled with the same disease, believing thereby that I will be benefiting them, and recommending to them a most valuable medicine and ever by one great praise.

I have also used the salve for Sore Throat and find it the best medicine I ever had in my family for that complaint.

Respectfully yours
JAS H ELLISON.

☞ THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF PILES ON RECORD ☜

WAKE COUNTY, N. C, Feb. 14, 1866

MR. CONGLETON—Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure that I heroin certify to the efficacy of your Vegetable Salve, in the cure of Piles. I have been afflicted with said disease some twenty five years, more or less. I have tried various remedies, but found no cure until I was advised by a friend in Raleigh to try your Salve, which I have done, and am at present perfectly well. I have used only one box, which I think, it judiciously used, will cure any case like mine.

I would advise all afflicted with said disease to go and do likewise

Yours respectfully,
HENRY UTLEY

THE AMERICAN

Rheumatic Liniment

CAUSES a thrill of joy to vibrate through the heart of all those who are suffering from RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, HEADACHE, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK AND JOINTS, &c

Those who are daily wasting away a life of painful suffering and torture will hail with delight the introduction of this great family medicine in their homes as the great harbinger of ease, and relief from their sufferings and pains, for this is the sure result when this wonderful medicine is used. Limbs and joints that have been stiffened and refused to perform their usual offices, have by the use of "The American Rheumatic Liniment" been restored to their former usefulness.

Secure a bottle at once and be relieved of your pain and suffering.

TESTIMONIALS;

RALEIGH N. C, Jan 16, 1869.

MR CONGLETON:—On the 11th inst., I came to town with considerable pain and swelling in my right knee. I got a bottle of the "American Rheumatic Liniment" and applied it to my knee, which was greatly relieved and assuaged in ten hours. I then applied it again and by night was so far cured as to forget to apply the remedy; this pain had resisted the application of Liquid Opodeldoc for a week with utmost perceptible improvement, causing a limp in my walk at sometime and fears of inability to walk at all.

Respectfully,
THO. BAILY,
Book Agent, Dayton N. C.

WAKE COUNTY, N. C., Feb. 24th, 1869.

MR. CONGLETON:—Dear Sir: My little son was for four months suffering with pain in his legs and weakness in his knees so he scarcely could get about and walked with great difficulty. I was fearful that he would lose the use of his legs entirely, which gave me a great deal of trouble and anxiety, hearing of the American Rheumatic Liniment, I purchased one bottle and commenced using it, and by the time I had used half of the bottle, my son was greatly relieved and could walk very well, and after using the whole bottle, he is now perfectly well, with many thanks to you and praises for the "American Rheumatic Liniment" I am yours, &c.,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
